- Teams shall not reveal their Identity in any form, except by means of the Team Code assigned to them.
- Teams shall not, in any way, reveal their Identity in the Memorials or the course of the Oral Rounds.
- The Memorials shall not bear the logo, name, etc. of the Team, its members, or the Institution/College/University represented by the Team.
- Any material, including the Compendium, books, legal texts, or any other reference material, carried into the courtroom for the Oral Rounds, whether presented to the Bench or not, shall not reveal the Team's Identity and will be devoid of any identification marks/ seal of the Team or the Institution/College/University represented.
- If anything on the material carried into the Oral Rounds reveals the Team's Identity, the Team shall discard it to the satisfaction of the MCS before entering the court room.
- Any violation of the Rules of the Competition may attract disqualification of the Team from the Competition, or any other penalty as determined by the MCS.
- The decision of the MCS in this regard shall be final and not subject to challenge.
- Any attempts by a Team or a member of the Team to contact, either directly or indirectly, the drafter of the Moot Proposition for any reason whatsoever after the release of the Moot Proposition and before the Competition closes shall lead to the disqualification of such Team from the Competition.

CLARIFICATIONS

- Teams may seek Clarifications on the Moot Problem via e-mail to mcssnlc@gmail.com with the subject “Clarifications”.
- The request for clarifications should be explicit and related to the moot proposition’s facts and not to substantive arguments. A team can submit a maximum of 10 questions.
- As and when issued, the Clarifications become part of the Moot Proposition.
- The MCS reserves the right to reply or reject the clarifications.

OFFICIAL LANGUAGE

- The official language of the Competition shall be English. Therefore, all Oral Rounds, including Memorials, shall be in English.

ORAL ROUNDS

Teams shall submit their oral arguments throughout the Competition in the following order :

- Speaker 1 for Petitioner
- Speaker 2 for Petitioner
- Speaker 1 for Respondent
- Speaker 2 for Respondent
- No Researcher of any Team shall be permitted to address the Bench.
- Speaker 1 and Speaker 2 to remain the same throughout the competition.
- The Rebuttals or Sur-rebuttals, as the case may be, shall be presented by only one Speaker of the Team. The Rebuttals of the Petitioner shall be limited to responding to the oral arguments of the Respondent. The Sur-rebuttals of the Respondent shall be limited to responding to the Rebuttals of the Petitioner.

- Before the Oral Round commences, the Speakers of the Team shall inform the Court Officers regarding the following, after which this information shall not be amended:
 1. The Speaker delivering the Rebuttals or Sur-rebuttals, as the case may be.
 2. Time reserved by each speaker for oral arguments, as well as for Rebuttals or Sur-rebuttals as the case may be.
 3. Extensions of time may be granted only in extraordinary circumstances at the discretion of the Bench and is strongly discouraged.
 4. Teams shall not reveal their Identity (including names of the participants) throughout the duration of the Oral Rounds.
- No photographs, graphs, diagrams, tables, or any other representation of like nature prepared by the Team can be passed to the Panel, under any circumstances whatsoever.
- Only Researchers may pass research material, other written materials, or notes in the form of chits to the Speaker who may be speaking, after taking permission from the Bench.
- Any Team that violates any of the Rules concerning the Oral Rounds may be penalized. The decision of the Bench shall be final in this regard.
- Teams shall not be permitted to use any electronic devices, like laptops, projectors, video cameras, mobile phones, etc. during the Oral Rounds.
- The Oral Arguments should be confined to the issues presented in the Memorial.
- For the oral rounds, apart from the participant teams for such rounds, the members of the other teams are not allowed to observe such rounds. Scouting is strictly prohibited and scouting by any team shall entail instant disqualification.
- The decision of the MCS in this regard shall be final and not subject to challenge.

UNFAIR MEANS, INTIMIDATION & MISCONDUCT

- Cheating or using unfair means of any kind is strictly prohibited and if indulged in, shall result in disqualification of the team.
- Intimidation in any form is prohibited and if indulged in, shall result in disqualification of the team.
- Misconduct, whether behavioural or otherwise, is not allowed and if indulged in, shall result in disqualification of the team.

COURT MANNERS (VIRTUAL / ORAL ARGUMENTS)

- Any form of communication between the Bar Table and any person other than those on the Bench is prohibited and if indulged in, will result in a penalty point.
- It shall be the discretion of the organizing committee to decide on any violation of the Rules and Regulations during the round and whether that violation entails a penalty point. If a participating team, member of the Bench, or court officer wishes to claim a violation inform the organizing committee of the claim made and shall not consider it as a part of their deliberations unless directed to do so by the organizing committee.

SUBMISSION & FORMATTING OF MEMORIALS

- Delay in the submission of the memorials, use of incorrect font or font size, use of font of inconsistent size, or improper line spacing, failure to include all parts of the memorial, or inclusion of an unremunerated part, substantive legal argument outside of approved sections of memorial, improperly formatted index of authorities, excessive length, failure to include necessary information on the memorial cover, inclusion of any identifying mark, character or text in the memorial shall result in imposition of penalties.

DRESS CODE

- The dress code for all participants throughout the competition shall be a white shirt, black blazer (optional), and black trousers, black tie (optional) for men, and white shirt/kurta, black blazer (optional), black trousers for women. Strict adherence to the dress code is required in both offline and online competition.

CONNECTIVITY ISSUES

- Teams advancing to the preliminary and quarter-final rounds are advised to use a stable internet connection to ensure smooth presentations. •
- The host institution shall not be held responsible for any connectivity or network issues that might arise during oral arguments. •
- In case of unprecedented connectivity issues such as abrupt internet failure, considering the best interests of the teams 5 minutes shall be allotted for interrupted session. Such contingencies must be intimated to the organizers through WhatsApp immediately by the researcher of the concerned team.
- In case the contingency is not mitigated, teams shall be awarded marks based on the arguments submitted till the point connections are lost. Owing to such contingency, if one team completes oral arguments, and the opposite team cannot begin their oral arguments, the team that completed oral arguments shall advance to the next round by default.

OFFLINE ROUNDS

- Teams advancing to the semi and finals are advised to reach the venue an hour before the competition.
- Every team member is required to carry their original college/university ID along with a copy of the same to be submitted at the registration desk at the venue. Teams without ID cards will not be permitted to participate in the competition.
- Teams are advised to call the convenors to inform the WhatsApp group regarding their arrival.
- Teams will be contacted before the competition regarding accommodation and travel plans.
- There will be communications regarding the same after the quarter-finals to the Mail ID for communication.
