ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Today, world's biggest challenge is how to protect environment and prevent climate change. In this context, sustainability is a much-discussed topic in academic arena. International Trade and Investment plays a crucial element in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals. Even though trade leads to development, there are several issues like environment protection, gender discrimination, uneven trade, protectionism and developing countries concerns etc. are still to be resolved successfully. Therefore, to fully benefit from trade and transition to a green economy it is necessary that the trade and investment law should be aligned with Sustainable Development Goals.

Further, it is equally important for competition law to not become a barrier to genuine efforts that foster sustainable development. There is a need for research to balance sustainable business practices and fair competition in the market. Recently, the Chairperson of the Competition Commission of India (CCI) has stated that CCI is looking for plausible solutions to integrate sustainability dimensions into the Indian Competition law framework.

In this backdrop, School of Law, Bennett University (India) and the Centre for Trade, Investment and Competition (CTIC) invites research papers for the International Conference on Multidisciplinary Approach to Achieving Sustainability in Trade, Investment and Competition Law to be held on 27-29th Nov. 2024. The aim of this conference is to explore and contemplate over the conflicting areas related to Sustainability vis-à-vis international trade law, investment law and competition law. Since the conference is inter-disciplinary in scope, the submissions need not necessarily be related to law and can engage important economic and other policy matters. To make the conference more encompassing, five tracks have been identified and paper are invited accordingly. These five tracks include: International Trade, Investment, Sustainability, commercial and Investment arbitration, and Competition/ Anti-trust Laws. The venue of the conference will be Bennett University. The sessions shall be conducted in Hybrid Mode.
