

Call for Papers

Woxsen Law Review

Volume II (2025)

School of Law,
Woxsen University

About the Woxsen Law Review

The Woxsen Law Review is the flagship review of the School of Law, Woxsen University, Hyderabad, Telangana, India. It is an annual review which provides an appropriate platform for academicians, practitioners, researchers, judges, jurists, and students to assimilate and exchange their ideas to facilitate the discourse on contemporary legal issues through their scholarly articles and research papers. The journal assumes an interdisciplinary orientation and is wide enough to include national as well as international legal and policy-based issues within its sweep. The paramount objective of WLR is to reinterpret and redefine the boundaries of law, justice and society. The WLR welcomes research papers, articles, case comments and notes, and book reviews for publication in its upcoming issue (Volume II 2025).

Categories of Submission

- Long Articles: 6000 to 8,000 words
- Short Articles: 3000 to 6000 words
- Case Comments and Notes: 1,800 to 3,000 words
- Book Reviews: 1,500 to 2,500 words
- Note: Word limits are exclusive of footnotes.

Theme

Any issues of contemporary nature based on Constitutional law, Family law, Property law, Criminal law, AI and Law, Business Laws, ADR, Intellectual Property Rights, Cyber Law, Sports Law, etc.

Important Dates

The last date for the final submission of the full paper is 10th January 2025.

Submission Guidelines

- Submissions must be in electronic form sent via email to LawReview@woxsen.edu.in
- The submission shall not contain the name of the author or institutional affiliation or any other identification mark (except in the cover letter).
- Submission shall be sent in Word format only.
- A separate cover letter in Word format containing the following particulars of the author(s) is to be sent along with the submission:
 - Title of Submission
 - Name of the Author and Co-Author(s)
 - Designation
 - Institutional Affiliation
 - Contact Information and Address for Correspondence
 - Co-authorship: Co-authorship of up to two authors is permitted

Formatting Guidelines

- The font must be Times New Roman and sized 12 for the main text, and 10 for the footnotes.
- Line Spacing must be 1.5 for the main text and 1.0 for the footnotes.
- Each submission apart from the book review should be accompanied by an abstract of not more than 200 words and five keywords

Citation Style

Citation style must adhere to OSCOLA (4th edition).

Publication Policy

The Submissions must be original. Plagiarism up to 10% is permissible. The author(s) are expected to submit a declaration of originality with their submission. Submission of work demonstrates that the authors confer exclusive permission to WLR in order to publish and reproduce their work in all streams of media. In addition to this, the editors are entitled to reserve to delete or edit any article, research paper, case comment or book review whose content is found to be offensive, defamatory, unethical, or if it is suggestive of gender or religious discrimination, illegal or terror activities etc. Moreover, the double-blind peer review process will be exercised to scrutinize all the submissions

Advisory Board Members

Prof. Salvatore Tolone Azzariti

Distinguished Professor of Private Law at the University of Oxford, United Kingdom

Dr. Thamil Venthan
Ananthavinayagan

Assistant Principal at the Department of Justice, Government of Ireland

Dr. Akanksha Singh Jumde

Central Queensland University,
School of Business and Law
Sydney, Australia

Advisor

Prof. Joshua Dalrymple

Dean, School of Law,
Woxsen University

Editor-In-Chief

Prof. Nehal Ahmad

Assistant Professor, School of Law,
Woxsen University

Managing Editor

Dr. Ajoy Jose

Assistant Professor, School of Law,
Woxsen University