EDITOR -IN-CHIEF:

Dr. Vivek Goyal,
Head, School of Law, GEHU

Message from Editor - in - Chief:

It gives me immense pleasure to invite scholarly contributions for the upcoming edition of the GEHU Law Review, the flagship publication of the School of Law, Graphic Era Hill University. As one of the premier institutions committed to academic excellence and cutting-edge legal research, we uphold the highest standards of scholarship and intellectual inquiry.

In keeping with our vision to foster critical legal discourse, we expect submissions that reflect originality, depth, and a commitment to advancing legal thought. We encourage academicians, researchers, and practitioners to contribute innovative perspectives that address contemporary legal challenges and emerging jurisprudential trends. This journal is an opportunity for authors to showcase their research, engage with contemporary legal challenges, and influence future developments in law. We welcome papers that not only advance academic discourse but also propose practical solutions to real-world legal issues.

Each submission will undergo a rigorous review and editing process by our esteemed faculty and an editorial board comprising distinguished professors and academicians. This ensures that the GEHU Law Review maintains its reputation as a credible and impactful academic platform. We look forward to receiving thought-provoking and insightful contributions that will shape the discourse in legal academia. I, encourage you to take part in this exciting endeavor. Together, we can continue to elevate the academic standards of our institution and contribute meaningfully to the global legal community.
