ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF LAW

Bennett University established the School of Law (SOL) with a vision to strive for excellence in teaching, learning research, and advocacy towards Justice for all by shaping thought leaders in public policy of National and International dimensions. The school at present is offering B.A.LL.B., (Hons.), B.B.A.LL.B., (Hons.), LL.M., and Ph.D. programs and imbibes the best practices in terms of curriculum, pedagogy, innovation in teaching methods. Invested and promoted by the largest media enterprise, the School of Law is committed to educating the pioneers of the future through leaders in the field of law, the ones who can think out loud and clear on matters of justice and progress.

ABOUT CENTRE FOR CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION (CCLE)

The main object of the CCLE is to help enhance the quality of legal education and the legal profession through the possibility of continuous upgradation of knowledge ever after one has attained a formal degree. This will be done through individualized training directed towards developing the quality of the professionals and professional institutions and also provide quality inputs to the legal fraternity. The vision of the Centre is to continuously promote and enhance the knowledge of the legal professionals, with the aim to provide practical and focused continuous education and know-how to all the stakeholders of law to sharpen their competencies and promote research and development in the field of continuing legal education. To translate the vision into action, the Centre looks forward to the following mission:

1. Creation of professional development programmes, intensive and specialised courses for continuous legal education.
2. Training programmes, conferences, seminars and workshops for all stakeholders including but not limited to lawyers, NGOs, academicians, judges and institutions.
3. Developing collaboration with different organisations for exchange of knowledge and research projects including publications.
4. To produce standardized training material, train the trainers and assist the law schools in incorporating continuous legal education.
5. To engage in legal awareness generation by building a strong community of sensitised professionals.
6. To develop and conduct research projects targeted at the aim of promoting continuing legal education and its wide contours.

ABOUT INTERNATIONAL FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME (IFDP)

The Centre for Continuing Legal Education (CCLE) at the School of Law, Bennett University, Greater Noida, is committed to advancing legal education and professional development through its annual International Faculty Development Programme (IFDP). In 2023, the IFDP was organized on the theme "Outcome-Based Education: Changing Dimensions of Law Teaching and Research," focusing on contemporary pedagogical advancements in legal education. The 2024 edition of the IFDP centered on "Innovative Techniques of Teaching and Research in Law." This programme featured distinguished academicians from prestigious national and international universities, who conducted specialized training sessions and delivered expert lectures aimed at enhancing the professional competencies of legal scholars and educators worldwide.

Building upon the success of previous editions, CCLE is set to host the third IFDP in 2025 on the theme "Approaches to Quality Legal Education: Fostering Academic Excellence" wherein renowned academicians from National and International Universities of repute will provide training and deliver expert talks on various topics related to the theme. The programme is scheduled to take place from 21 July to 26 July 2025 and will continue its objective of equipping legal educators with advanced teaching methodologies and research techniques to elevate the standards of legal education on a global scale. Legal education serves as the foundational stone for the development of competent legal professionals who can contribute meaningfully to the justice delivery system and society at large. Hence, fostering academic excellence in legal education requires a multifaceted approach and ensuring the quality of legal education is paramount in maintaining the integrity and efficacy of legal institutions.

Objectives

The objectives of the IFDP 2025 is to explore key approaches to fostering academic excellence in legal education, such as, focusing on curriculum design, pedagogical strategies, practical training, faculty development, and technological integration to cater to diverse learning needs and making legal education more accessible and inclusive to all.

Sub- themes

1. Develop critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and ethical awareness
2. Curriculum Design for Balancing theoretical knowledge with practical application
3. Innovative teaching methodologies like Socratic method and problem-based analysis
4. Interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary approaches in the field of legal education
5. Experiential learning approaches such as clinical legal education
6. Practical training to provide exposure to the workings of the legal system
7. Fostering partnerships with legal institutions for faculty and student exchange program
8. Mentorship programs for academics and beyond
9. Collaborative academic initiatives to ensure quality teaching, learning and research
10. Integration of Law and Artificial intelligence
11. E-learning platforms and hybrid learning models
12. Professional ethics and real-world challenges
13. Promoting Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEIs) in classroom and beyond
14. Incorporation of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in legal education
15. Any other topic related thereto

LEARNING OUTCOME

By the end of the IFDP, participants will be able to yield significant benefits, including:

- Exposure to global best practices and innovative teaching methodologies
- Opportunities for collaborative academic approaches and quality research
- Embrace technological advancements for Curriculum modernisation
- Promotion of cross-cultural understanding among legal educators
