CALL FOR PROPOSALS SPECIAL ISSUES

MAASTRICHT JOURNAL of European and Comparative Law

The Maastricht Journal of European and Comparative Law warmly invites the submission of proposals for a special issue to be published in a volume of the Maastricht Journal in 2026. The deadline for submission of such a proposal is on: 12 September 2025.

*The Maastricht Journal is a unique peer-refereed journal publishing six issues per year, serving academics and legal practitioners who want to stay informed regarding developments and challenges within the Ius Commune Europaeum. The journal publishes articles and case notes by leading academics and professionals in the areas of European and Comparative Law, and covers areas of interest in both European Law and in the comparative laws of European states.*

LENGTH/SCOPE

A special issue in the Maastricht Journal can contain up to eight articles plus an introduction and/or conclusion. Each paper is up to 8.000 words in length, including footnotes.

Proposals shall include:

- an outline of the project containing a description of the topic and motivating why the issue should be published in the Maastricht Journal (up to 4 pages);
- a table of contents;
- a final confirmation of all authors involved;
- a brief biography of all authors and guest editors;
- short abstracts (150-200 words) for each paper.

PEER REVIEW

The guest editor(s) should review all papers and, where necessary, provide comments to the authors before submission to the Journal. In addition, the members of the Editorial Board of the Maastricht Journal will review all papers and reserve the right to provide comments or to reject papers.

HOW TO SUBMIT

Please send the relevant documents and/or any questions to the Executive Editors at: maastricht.journal@maastrichtuniversity.nl
