ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

As India marks 75 years of the Constitution, this national seminar offers a timely opportunity to revisit and reflect upon the constitutional ideal of social, economic and political justice as envisioned in the preamble.

The conference, centered around the theme “75 Years of the Constitution of India: Realising the Promise of Justice”, aims to explore the evolution of justice in Indian constitutional democracy and the challenges that remain.

The Conference aims to bring together over 300 academicians, scholars, students, legal practitioners, and members of judiciary to critically examine the Constitution’s promise of justice and to envision its continued relevance in building a just, inclusive and democratic India.

ESTEEMED SPEAKERS

The Hon’ble Chief Justice of India, Justice Bhushan R. Gavai, and Hon’ble Justice Dr. D.Y. Chandrachud, Former Chief Justice of India, have been invited to grace the conference. The event will also feature participation from distinguished judges, senior advocates, academicians, and legal scholars from across the country.

A complete list of speakers and sessions will be announced shortly.
