WHEREAS, the Receiving Party will be exposed to confidential and proprietary information during their internship at the Ministry of Law and Justice, which may include, but is not limited to, documents, data, reports, trade secrets, software, inventions, processes, business strategies, financial information, and any other information of a confidential nature (collectively referred to as the "Confidential Information");

WHEREAS, the Disclosing Party desires to protect its Confidential Information, and the Receiving Party acknowledges and agrees to maintain the confidentiality of such information;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties agree as follows:

Confidentiality Obligations

(a) The Receiving Party acknowledges that any Confidential Information disclosed by the Disclosing Party is the exclusive property of the Disclosing Party and shall remain confidential and proprietary.

(b) The Receiving Party agrees to maintain the utmost confidentiality with respect to any Confidential Information received from the Disclosing Party, both during the term of their internship and indefinitely thereafter, unless expressly authorized in writing by the Disclosing Party to disclose such information.

(c) The Receiving Party shall use the Confidential Information solely for the purpose of performing their duties and responsibilities as an intern at the Ministry of Law and Justice. They shall not use the Confidential Information for their personal gain or for the benefit of any third party.

(d) The Receiving Party shall exercise reasonable care to prevent the unauthorized use, disclosure, or dissemination of the Confidential Information. This includes, but is not limited to, implementing appropriate security measures and restricting access to the Confidential Information only to those Interns and Consultants, strictly on a need-to-know basis.

Return of Confidential Information

Upon the termination or completion of the Receiving Party's internship, as the case may be, at the Ministry of Law and Justice or at the request of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall promptly return to the Disclosing Party or destroy, at the Disclosing Party's discretion, all tangible or electronic copies of the Confidential Information, including any notes or summaries thereof.

Exclusions

The obligations under this Agreement shall not apply to any information that:

- (a) Was rightfully in the possession of the Receiving Party prior to its disclosure by the Disclosing Party, as evidenced by written records;
- (b) Is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the Receiving Party;
- (c) Is lawfully obtained by the Receiving Party from a third party without any breach of confidentiality;
- (d) Is independently developed by the Receiving Party without the use of the Confidential Information.

Remedies

(a) The Receiving Party acknowledges that any unauthorized disclosure or use of the Confidential Information may cause irreparable harm to the Disclosing Party, for which monetary damages may not be an adequate remedy. Therefore, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief or specific performance in addition to any other legal remedies available.

(b) In the event of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney fees and legal costs.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of India. In case of any disagreement, dispute, or claim arising from the Contract or its breach, termination, or invalidity, if the parties are unable to resolve it amicably as stated above, either party can refer the matter to the Secretary of the Department of Legal Affairs. The decision of the law secretary shall be final and binding on both parties.

Entire Agreement

This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, whether written or oral, relating to the Confidential Information. No modification, amendment, or waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by both Parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have executed this Non-Disclosure Agreement as of the date first written below.
