

CALL FOR ARTICLES GNLU CPIL Magazine

VOL I ISSUE II

| SUBMIT BY NOVEMBER 5, 2025 |

ABOUT THE GNLU-CPIL MAGAZINE

The Centre for Public International Law (CPIL) at Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), Gandhinagar, invites submissions for Volume I, Issue I of the GNLU-CPIL Magazine.

The Magazine serves as a platform for scholars, practitioners, and students to contribute to contemporary debates in Public International Law, Private International Law, Human Rights Law, Humanitarian Law, Foreign Policy, and related fields.

ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW (CPIL)

Established in 2010, the Centre for Public International Law (CPIL) at GNLU, Gandhinagar, is a leading research centre dedicated to advancing scholarship in Public International Law, the Law of the Sea, Maritime Law, and related disciplines.

The Centre actively engages in research, policy development, and academic discourse to contribute to the evolving international legal landscape.

THEMATIC FOCUS

The upcoming issue will be focused on Private International Law. The themes are inclusive not exclusive. Articles related to the thematic focus will also be considered.

Transnational Family Law & Cross-Border Recognition

- Child custody disputes
- International adoption
- Surrogacy arrangements
- Marriage recognition across jurisdictions

Climate Justice & Private International Law

- Corporate environmental liability
- Jurisdictional challenges in climate litigation
- Legal implications of climate-induced migration

Investor–State Dispute Settlement (ISDS)

- Enforcement issues
- Reforms to the ISDS framework
- Competing interpretations of investment treaties

Corporate Accountability & Responsibility Across Borders

- Supply chain due diligence
- EU Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive (EUCSDD)
- Parent company liability
- Extraterritorial corporate responsibility

Personal Status Recognition in Diverse Legal Systems

- Recognition of same-sex relationships
- Marriage and adoption rights
- Gender recognition

Digital Economy

- Cryptocurrency disputes
- Conflicts in data protection regimes
- Jurisdiction in e-commerce
- Governance issues surrounding artificial intelligence

WHO CAN SUBMIT?

Academicians, legal practitioners, policymakers, and students.

CATEGORIES OF SUBMISSIONS

- Articles
- Case Comments

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Word Limit: 3000-3500 words (exceptions considered on a case-by-case basis).
- Co-authorship: Allowed (maximum of two authors).
- Citation Style: OSCOLA 4th edition (No hyperlinks).
- Formatting: Garamond, Font Size: 12 (body), 10 (footnotes), Line Spacing: 1.5 (body), 1 (footnotes).
- Originality: Submissions must be unpublished and free from plagiarism.
- For further details on submission & formatting guidelines, please refer to gnlucpil.com

SUBMISSION PROCEDURE

- Submit your manuscript in .doc/.docx format via email to cpil@gnlu.ac.in.
- The subject line should be: "Submission for GNLU-CPIL Magazine – Volume I, Issue II".
- The body of the email must include the author's name, affiliation, academic qualifications, and contact details.

DEADLINE

5th November 2025, 11:59 PM (IST)

REVIEW & PUBLICATION PROCESS

- The magazine follows a double-blind peer review process.
- The review period is approximately 6-8 weeks after deadline.
- Selected articles will be published in Volume I, Issue II of the GNLU-CPIL Magazine.

CONTACT INFORMATION

For any queries, please reach out to cpil@gnlu.ac.in.